

Editorial

Dear Readers,

Just a quick word to let you know that our inaugural Supplemental Issue of JAVMA is launching along with this December 15, 2021 issue. It is called “Surgery in Your Practice.” It will first appear as a Digital Edition and can be found here: <https://mydigitalpublication.com/publication/?i=728808>. It will then appear in print, and you will receive it with your January 15, 2022 issue of JAVMA. I write much more about this strategic initiative to enhance member benefit in my editorial, so I won’t repeat it here. And, if you haven’t already done so, please visit our new journal’s website <https://avmajournals.avma.org/> where you will find ahead-of print manuscripts and much more. You will also enjoy single sign-on for the AVMA and JAVMA. I hope you enjoy these selected manuscripts in “Surgery in Your Practice” and I look forward to your feedback.

Lisa A. Fortier DVM, PhD, DACVS

Respectfully,

Dr. Lisa A. Fortier
Editor-in-Chief, JAVMA
