

American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA)
OPEN ACCESS COPYRIGHT LICENSE

This Open Access Copyright License form must be completed and executed by the author(s) of any original manuscript (“Manuscript”) submitted to the AVMA for consideration for publication in the Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association (“JAVMA”) under the Open Access option.

If the copyright to the Manuscript is owned by someone other than the author(s), or if the Manuscript was made for hire in the course of employment by a company or institution, or if any author of the Manuscript is an employee of the U.S. or foreign government, or if an author’s employment status prohibits the author from signing this agreement, please contact the production editor of JAVMA to secure the appropriate copyright license form.

Please read the Copyright License carefully and keep a copy for your files.

Publication cannot proceed without a signed copy of this Copyright License and payment of the appropriate Article Publication Charge (APC) in full (without deduction of any taxes or fees). For information about the JAVMA APC, click here.

A. TERMS OF USE

1. The Manuscript will be made Open Access under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial License (“CC BY-NC”) which permits use, distribution and reproduction in any medium, provided that the Manuscript is properly cited and is not used for commercial purposes.
2. For an understanding of what is meant by the terms of the Creative Commons License, please refer to <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/>.

B. LICENSE

The author or authors (“Authors”) of the Manuscript hereby grant to the AVMA a perpetual, non-exclusive, non-transferrable license to publish, republish, transmit, sell, store copies, distribute and otherwise use the Manuscript in whole or in part in electronic and print editions of the JAVMA (“Journal”) to which the Authors have submitted the Manuscript and in derivative works throughout the world, in all languages and in all media of expression now known or later developed, for commercial purposes, and to license or permit others to do so. The rights granted to the AVMA herein are in addition to the AVMA’s non-exclusive rights under the CC BY-NC license and do not conflict with the rights granted to users under the terms of the CC BY-NC.

C. RETAINED RIGHTS

The Authors retain the copyright in the Manuscript, as well other proprietary rights, including patent rights, in any process, procedure or article of manufacture described in the manuscript.

D. CONTRIBUTIONS OWNED BY EMPLOYER

If the Manuscript was written by the Authors in the course of the Authors’ employment as a “work-made-for-hire” and the employer (“Employer) owns the copyright in the Manuscript, then the employer must execute a separate Agreement (in addition to the Authors) licensing the Manuscript to the AVMA.

E. GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS

If the Manuscript was prepared under a U.S. Government contract or grant, the U.S. Government may reproduce, without charge, all or portions of the Manuscript and may authorize others to do so, for official U.S. Government purposes only, if the U.S. Government contract or grant so requires.

F. LICENSE NOTICE

The AVMA and the Authors agree that any and all copies of the Manuscript or any part thereof distributed, published or posted by them in print or electronic format as permitted will include a notice of the Creative Commons open access CC BY-NC license in the Journal and in the final published version of the Manuscript in the Journal as published by the AVMA.

G. REPRESENTATIONS AND INDEMNIFICATION

By signing below, Authors jointly and severally represent and warrant that: that (a) the Authors are the constitute all of the owners of the copyright to the Manuscript and that all Authors have the authority to enter into this Agreement and the license of rights herein; (b) the Manuscript is the original work of the Authors (except for copyrighted material owned by others for which written permission has been obtained and disclosed in writing to the AVMA), has not been previously published in any form (unless disclosed in writing to the AVMA), and has been submitted only to the Journal; (c) the Manuscript does not infringe the copyright or violate any proprietary rights, rights of privacy or publicity, or any other rights of any third party, and does not contain any material that is libelous or otherwise contrary to law; (d) all statements and presentations of data in the Manuscript asserted as factual are either true or based on generally accepted professional research practices; and (e) any studies on which the Manuscript is directly based were conducted in compliance with the governing Institutional Review Board (“IRB”) standards or were exempt from IRB requirements. In the event that any of the foregoing warranties or representations are breached, the Authors, jointly and severally, shall indemnify and hold harmless AVMA and its officers, directors, employees, and agents, against any losses, liabilities, damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) arising from or resulting out of any claim or demand of any kind relating to such breach. Each Author has made a significant contribution to the Manuscript, including: (1) the conception and design of the study reported, the acquisition of the data used in the study, or the analysis and interpretation of the data; (2) the contribution of significant intellectual content; and (3) approval of the submitted version of the Manuscript and the opportunity to approve revisions.

The AVMA may copyedit the Manuscript for clarity, brevity, accuracy, grammar, word usage, style conformity and presentation as deemed advisable or appropriate for production and publication. The Authors will be provided the opportunity to proofread proofs of the Manuscript and will timely provide the AVMA with any proposed corrections or other changes, with time being of the essence. If corrected proofs are not timely returned, the AVMA may proceed with the publication of the Manuscript as it deems appropriate.

The Authors understand that if the AVMA decides not to publish the Manuscript, the AVMA shall notify the Authors and this license shall be revoked. This Agreement shall be of no further force or effect, and neither party shall have any further obligations to the other party(s) with respect to the Manuscript. There is no guarantee that the Manuscript will be published in the Journal.

H. USE OF INFORMATION

The Authors acknowledge that, during the term of this Agreement and thereafter (for as long as necessary), the AVMA may process the Authors' personal data, including storing or transferring data outside of the country of the Authors' residence, in order to process transactions related to this Agreement and to communicate with the Authors, and that the AVMA has a legitimate interest in processing the Authors' personal data. By entering into this Agreement, the Owners agree to the processing of their personal data (and, where applicable, confirms that the Authors have obtained the permission from all other Authors to process their personal data).

I agree to the COPYRIGHT LICENSE as shown above, consent to execution and delivery of the COPYRIGHT LICENSE electronically and agree that an electronic signature shall be given the same legal force as a handwritten signature, and have obtained written permission from all other Authors to execute this COPYRIGHT LICENSE on their behalf.
