

Supplementary Video S1—Postoperative lateral swallowing study of a dog from Group B (muscle-sparing left arytenoid lateralization) showing marked cervical esophageal paresis. A large bolus of canned food fills the cervical esophagus. Thoracic esophageal motility is unaffected. Cranial is to the left.

Supplementary
Video_S1.wmv