Supplementary Figure S1—Photographs of a 20-gauge, 70-mm needle (dagger) used for AW placement to aid with the intraoperative identification of a peripheral lymph node. Note the atraumatic single hook wire tip (asterisk) and the transparent Luer lock (double dagger). Inset—Magnification of the bevelled needle tip and the hook wire tip.