

Supplementary Figure S1—Box-and-whisker plot of total solids (TS) for head-started and free-ranging Eastern box turtles (Terrapene carolina) from the jugular vein, which was statistically significant. In each plot, the box represents the first through third quartiles, the horizontal bar within the box is the median, and the whiskers represent maximum and minimum values, and the circles represent outliers.

