Question #1 Did you attend Day 1 of the ASF Planning Workshop dedicated to response triggers, diagnostic lab capability, sampling, and surveillance?

- Yes
- Partially
- No

Question #2 What concerns do you have regarding Ohio's ability to respond to an ASF outbreak in terms of response triggers, laboratory capability, sampling, and/or surveillance?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Question #3 What additional resources/communication/training would be helpful for your agency/organization/stakeholder group to ensure laboratory, sampling, and/or surveillance efforts are properly coordinated in the event of an ASF outbreak?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Question #4 What logistics of sampling and surveillance (e.g., how samples will be transported from farm to lab) do you feel are most feasible in Ohio?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
Question #5 What discussion points regarding laboratory capability, sampling, and surveillance do you feel need to be addressed in more detail?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

Question #6 Were any critical points related to response triggers, laboratory capability, sampling, and/or surveillance missing from the discussion? If so, please explain.

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

Question #7 Are there any lessons learned/experiences from the COVID-19 response that you feel relate to an aspect of planning for response triggers, lab capabilities, sampling, and/or surveillance?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

Question #8 If you are a non-veterinarian, please answer this question: Would you feel comfortable collecting samples if the response required additional personnel resources to aid in sampling? If not, what additional resources (if any) would make you feel more comfortable?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
Question #9 On a scale from 0 (not at all) to 10 (extremely), please indicate a value which represents your opinion on the question below:

| How prepared do you feel OH is in identifying and responding to the first signs of an ASF outbreak? () | [Scale] |
| How prepared do you feel OH is in coordinating a large volume of samples collected for ASF testing? () | [Scale] |

Question #10 Please feel free to provide any further elaboration or rationale for your rankings above:
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

Question #12 Please share any questions you still have regarding Day 1 topics below:
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________